what do we know about jerusalem the first qibla of muslims revered throughout history as the city of the friend of god khalilullah jerusalem was a haven where people of all faiths lived in peace for most of its islamic history especially during the ottoman period today the palestine issue remains a global focal point due to jerusalem s sacred status particularly as the home of the al aqsa mosque this book aims to shed light on jerusalem s history and importance it answers 101 questions about the city s journey from its earliest days to the present with a particular emphasis on its significance to the abrahamic religions this work serves as both a reference for those studying jerusalem and a historical guide for those planning a visit as 2024 concludes it stands as a culmination of the seismic shifts and tensions that have tested the very foundations of the international system amid unprecedented developments türkiye reaffirmed its role as an established and prominent player embodying a foreign policy that is multilayered multiaxial and multidimensional even as the international system was constantly tested at its core türkiye s foreign policy approach is humanitarian earning it the reputation of being the guardian of the vulnerable and the protector of the voiceless beyond the ongoing genocide in gaza the international system witnessed defining moments such as the abrupt death of iran s top officials in a helicopter crash and the fall of bashar al assad s regime in syria the re election of donald trump as president of the united states further underscored the year s unpredictability additionally elections in approximately 70 countries encompassing half the world s population saw incumbent parties faltering under public dissatisfaction with economic disruptions and the lingering effects of the pandemic paving the way for far right populist movements the return of trump signaled a marked shift in u s foreign policy his expected america first 20 protectionist stance and tax cuts raised concerns about the future of multilateralism and global trade leaving european countries bracing for potential economic ramifications meanwhile the ousting of assad after decades of autocratic rule marked by atrocities committed against civilians signaled the end of an era and the beginning of a new dawn for syria one fraught with both challenges and opportunities for the nation s future nonetheless on a broader scale global instability defined the year 2024 in europe domestic crises resulted in governmental collapses in germany and france while south korea experienced significant political turmoil following a failed attempt to impose martial law the ongoing war in ukraine and the genocide in gaza further strained the international system exposing the fragility of democratic institutions and the continued erosion of multilateral norms these profound challenges underscore the pressing need for a reimagined and resilient global governance framework capable of addressing the complexities of an increasingly volatile world as it has always been a pivotal actor in promoting regional stability and peace türkiye continued to assume a leading role in efforts to stabilize the region with assad s regime toppled ankara positioned itself as a key player in syria s reconstruction including plans to provide electricity and collaborate on hydrocarbon projects signaling türkiye s intent to integrate syrian energy infrastructure into its sphere concurrently türkiye brought to the table initiatives for a maritime demarcation agreement with syria reinforcing ankara s leadership in regional stability relations with israel reached a critical point amidst türkiye s unequivocal condemnation of the genocide in gaza since the operation al aqsa flood israeli aggression has resulted in over 44 000 civilian casualties including more than 16 000 children 105 000 injured and with many others facing famine sickness and a lack of essential resources under relentless bombardment türkiye under the leadership of president recep tayyip erdoğan has consistently advocated for a two state solution to ensure dignity and freedom for the palestinian people while persistently calling for an end to the ongoing genocide however the global community including many of the world s so called democracies failed to support türkiye s peace proposals and calls for halting the genocide despite this türkiye s principled stance resonated at the united nations headquarters the security council and across the globe in november türkiye severed all its diplomatic ties with israel a decisive move that underscored its strong alignment with international law humanitarian principles and moral values prompted by israel s unwillingness to end the genocide in gaza in 2024 türkiye s humanitarian diplomacy continued its longstanding expansion beyond its immediate neighborhood in africa ankara further reinforced its influence through ongoing mediation efforts infrastructure investments and cultural diplomacy by exporting cutting edge drone technology türkiye has bolstered its strategic foothold simultaneously educational scholarships and media outreach have bolstered türkiye s position as an equal partner emphasizing cooperation in contrast to the traditional asymmetric approaches of ex colonial western powers toward the region as a result of türkiye s multiaxial foreign policy ankara adeptly balanced its nato commitments with independent initiatives reflecting its ability to navigate the complexities of an evolving global order türkiye s multiaxial approach engaging with both the west and east as well as the north and south demonstrated a nuanced and adaptive strategy that reinforced its position as a central actor in international relations this approach allowed ankara to foster robust relations with key global players across diverse political and economic blocks while maintaining a steadfast commitment to regional and global stability and cooperation by strategically aligning its defense diplomatic and economic policies türkiye advanced its influence and credibility on the global stage showcasing its ability to contribute to resolving international challenges and ensuring a balanced and inclusive approach to global governance for türkiye 2024 was a year of assertiveness and proactive diplomacy leveraging geopolitical shifts türkiye amplified its influence on regional and global stages its strategic vision seamlessly blended humanitarianism with calculated diplomacy offering a beacon of hope amid global turbulence as the world transitions to 2025 türkiye s foreign policy underscores the responsibility for redefining her role standing as a symbol of resilience and inspiration as the guardian of the vulnerable and the protector of the voiceless türkiye remains as a beacon of hope not only for the neighboring region but for the entire world within this framework this issue of insight turkey seeks to address many of these topics offering in depth analyses to enhance our understanding not only of turkish foreign policy but also of the regional and global dynamics in which türkiye plays a pivotal role in recent years public diplomacy has become a central pillar of türkiye s foreign policy particularly since the establishment of the directorate of communications in 2018 therefore understanding türkiye s approach to public diplomacy is crucial in his research article oğuz güner provides a comprehensive analysis of türkiye s public diplomacy ecosystem he delves into its practices explores the transformative impact of institutionalization and examines the concept of nation branding as a key component of this evolution in the same vein ali çiçek and ali asker argue that while türkiye has achieved significant success in its public diplomacy efforts the time has come for türkiye and azerbaijan united by the deeply rooted concept of one nation two states reflected in public opinion and their cooperative endeavors to expand their strategic partnership into the sphere of public diplomacy çiçek and asker explore how türkiye can share its public diplomacy expertise with azerbaijan and examine the potential for collaborative public diplomacy initiatives between the two nations as mentioned earlier defense continues to be a critical domain in turkish foreign policy due to its strategic significance in this context recep zehitoğlu and abrahim karataş offer a fresh perspective in their article arguing that the rise of türkiye s defense sector has contributed to establishing a form of pax turka in certain conflicts they suggest that as the turkish defense industry develops more advanced weaponry the influence of pax turka could become increasingly pronounced particularly in parts of the region their study further predicts that the scope of pax turka may expand significantly by the 2030s the kurdish question has long been a pivotal element in türkiye s domestic affairs with significant implications for its foreign policy while this issue is analyzed in detail regarding the current government s policies there is a noticeable gap in the discussion concerning the stance of opposition parties particularly the chp addressing this gap halime kökçe and ramazan akkır s article examines and compares the policies of two chp leaders namely deniz baykal and kemal kılıçdaroğlu they argue that during baykal s tenure the chp s approach to the kurdish question was largely shaped by concerns about protecting the regime in contrast under kılıçdaroğlu the party s stance shifted to focus more on the socio economic challenges faced by kurds marking a partial departure from nationalist policies the growing importance of türkiye in regional and global affairs has become particularly evident in the context of the russia ukraine war where it has emerged as a key actor striving to end the conflict through various initiatives this issue of insight turkey focuses on this topic with both a commentary and a research article specifically barış çağlar s commentary emphasizes that the true adversary in the russia ukraine conflict is not any specific nation or faction but the looming threat of nuclear war arguing that preventing nuclear escalation must be the foremost priority the author also highlights how türkiye by promoting dialogue and facilitating peace negotiations exemplifies a strategic and alternative approach to conflict resolution one that seeks not only to prevent further escalation but also to lay the groundwork for lasting peace on the other hand merve suna Özel Özcan in her qualitative study examines the mediating role of militarist and internationalist sentiments in shaping the relationship between the personal values of turkish society and their attitudes toward the war in ukraine this issue of insight turkey also places significant emphasis on developments in the middle east particularly the events in palestine and iran s policies within this framework the commentaries by mahmoud al rantisi and mustafa caner provide detailed analyses of these topics specifically al rantisi explores the impact of yahya sinwar s martyrdom on the palestinian resistance and the hamas movement offering also an analysis of how israel consistently misunderstands the mindset of the palestinian resistance a dynamic that is expected to persist in the future furthermore mustafa caner s commentary focuses on iran israel relations examining iran s policy toward israel through historical strategic and contemporary lenses the analysis delves into iran s strategic calculations and the balancing actions and mechanisms it has employed in the post october 7 period to avert a full scale war in the region two additional research articles focusing on iran are also included in this issue the first by hakkı uygur offers a detailed and significant analysis of the evolution and institutionalization of iran s intelligence apparatus including the internal dynamics and developments among its intelligence agencies the second article by yousof qorashi examines the efforts of iran and india to expand their influence in central asia highlighting how the u s has not only obstructed these ambitions but also hindered cooperation between the two states this issue also addresses developments in iraq azerbaijan and afghanistan first mohamad hassan soueidan s article highlights two major projects in iraq the grand faw port and the dry canal according to the author these initiatives which aim to connect iraq with europe through türkiye and syria have the potential to transform iraq s role in global trade and reshape its economic landscape second shamkhal abilov natıg abduılayev and eldar hamzalı shed light on the sumgait events of 1988 and the khojaly massacre of 1992 focusing on russia s involvement in both cases furthermore their analysis also examines whether azerbaijan and armenia demonstrate tendencies of denialism when comparing these events third shahid ahmed afridi uses afghanistan as a case study employing post structuralism to deconstruct the theoretical foundations of the liberal peace order he critically examines the u s peacebuilding framework in afghanistan offering fresh insights into its limitations and implications last but not least this issue of insight turkey features a commentary that examines the implications of the forthcoming trump administration for the global order written by kılıç buğra kanat the commentary provides a detailed analysis of the potential policies of the new administration toward key global actors including russia china and the middle east as we bid farewell to another year insight turkey proudly concludes its 26th year of publication marked by impactful and comprehensive analyses of turkish foreign policy and regional developments as we prepare to embark on a new year we are excited to bring fresh topics innovative perspectives and in depth insights to our readers we extend our heartfelt gratitude to all our readers for their continued support and engagement we look forward to your continued readership and invite you to join us on this journey as we explore the evolving dynamics of our world in the year ahead
